FISCAL NOTE

SB 1935 - HB 1995

February 22, 2022

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes certain notarization requirements for applications for nonprofit gaming events, charitable solicitations, and athlete agents filed with the Secretary of State (SOS). Removes the requirement that some statements be filed under penalty perjury.

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Removing certain filing requirements will not result in any reduction in expenditures or loss in revenue to the Division of Charitable Solicitations and Gaming or the SOS; therefore, the fiscal impact is estimated to be not significant.
- There will not be a significant enough reduction of perjury convictions to result in a significant decrease in state or local expenditures.
